

Local Authority:	Tauranga City Council
Report Name:	State of the Environment Tauranga 2004 Our City – Our Environment tautou taone – tautou taiao
Report Date:	2004
General Approach:	Indicators under five headings corresponding to key policy themes in the District Plan; PSR model; ‘scorecards’ relating to the pressure and state for each key heading; commentary on Council responses.
Topics:	Amenity Values; Natural Resources; Heritage, Hazards; Physical Resources.
Indicators/Information:	Amenity Values: average residential section size; Change in Average Residential Section Size in Urban Growth Areas; Difference in Residential Section Size between Urban Growth Areas and Infill Areas; proportion of section; Satisfaction with Streetscape; People’s Appreciation of Trees; Streetscape Amenity - Ratio of Tree Densities between New Subdivisions and Established Sites; Long-term Noise Levels; Satisfaction with Noise Levels; Noise Complaints; Housing Densities; Satisfaction with Section Privacy; Accessibility of Schools, Reserves and Supermarkets; Comparison of Urban Growth to Facilities Access; Satisfaction with Access to Schools, Reserves and Commercial Areas; Value of Neighbourhood Reserves; Area of Reserve Compared with Level of Service; Projected Growth of the Port and Airport; Residential Development within Port and Airport Noise Areas; Bathing Water Quality; Comparative Value of Property Views. Natural Resource Indicators: District Landscape Value; Resource Consents in Landscape Areas; Area of Vegetation Lost; Fragmentation Index; Length of Riparian Stream Margin; Condition of Significant Ecological Sites; Level of Formal Protection of Significant Ecological Sites; Amount of Productive Land Zoned for Development; Change in the Area of Large Lot Productive Land. Heritage Indicators: Heritage Perception - Satisfaction with Protection of Heritage Values (buildings, archaeological sites, historical sites, and cultural sites) in Tauranga District; Number of District Plan Heritage Sites Impacted by Resource Consent Activities; Number and Type of Known Archaeological Sites; Ratio of Existing Archaeological Sites Compared with Number Destroyed; Number of Authorities Applied for, and Granted per annum; Number of Protected Cultural Sites - Number of District Plan Heritage Registered Sites; Percentage of Resource Consents Consulted with Tangata Whenua; Number of Notable Trees (on District Plan Register), and Number of Applications Submitted/ Granted to Remove Notable Tree. Hazard Indicators: Natural Hazard Awareness; Consideration of Hazards in buying a house; Change in Sand Volume on Coastal Beaches; Coastal Hazards Erosion Risk; Comparative Coastal Land Values in Coastal Hazard Erosion Risk and Non-risk Areas Compared with Non-Risk Areas; Sea Level Rise; Variation Between Storm Surge and High-tide Levels for Tauranga Harbour; Properties at risk from flooding; Satisfaction with stormwater system; Number of Land Parcels on Steep Slopes; Value of Steep Land Relative to Less Steep Land; Hazardous Substance Storage Volumes; Contaminated Sites. Physical Resource Indicators: Rate of Land Development (in Infill and Urban Growth Areas); Type of Land Development; Industrial Development; Commercial Development; Vacant Industrial Land Uptake; Water Consumed per person; Stormwater Quality; Air Quality at Long Term site; Car Ownership; Average (Travel to Work) Vehicle Occupancy Rate; Mode of Transport to Work; Traffic Volumes Compared with Population Growth; Road Injury Crashes; Amount of Public Road Per Resident; Bus passenger numbers per year; Amount of Footpaths and Cycleways; Walking and Cycling Use; Waste Production per Resident; Waste to Landfill; Recycling; Amount of Waste Minimisation Education Provided to Our School Children.
Notes:	Downloadable @ http://ourcity.tauranga.govt.nz/statistics/reports/ .

